Circular

Subject: Faculty training on Android application development course.

Ref: Hon'ble V.C approval No. 32, dt: 06/01/2018

We are aware that VTU is introducing the syllabus of Mobile Application Development as an open elective from 6th Sem (even semester, January 2018). Since it has been made compulsory for all the colleges, we thought it appropriate to train faculty members of all colleges affiliated under VTU before the syllabus is officially launched.

Continuing with the effort of training faculty members from all colleges, one more batch of faculty training program on Android Application Development is planned in the month of January 2018. VTU in association with Google India Pvt. Ltd is conducting five days faculty training program on Android Application Development Foundation course. The training is designed for CSE/ISE faculty of VTU affiliated engineering colleges.

You may note that the training program is compulsory for the faculty who will be handling the subject of Mobile Application Development in their respective colleges.

Training Schedule:

• Alva's Institute of Engineering & Technology, Moodbidri from 21/01/2018 to 25/01/2018

Note:

- Expert trainers from Google.
- No registration fees for the training program.
- Only 25 faculty members can be accommodated for the training.
- Registrations open for colleges only under Mysuru region at first come first serve basis.

- College Principal has to send the official letter to VTU, proposing the faculty for the workshop.
- No further registration will be entertained from colleges whose faculty have already undergone training program earlier.
- Maximum 2 faculties from a college can be accommodated in a batch
- Coffee / Tea and Lunch arrangements for participants.
- Certificates to be provided for those who have successfully completed the training program.
- No TA/DA for faculties to be paid by the organizer.

Interested faculty can contact and register for the same.

Mr. N. Sanjeev Kumar, Special Officer (Skills), VTU on sanjeevk@vtu.ac.in, 0831-2498105

Confirmation for attending the workshop will be communicated through e-mail.
