It is also a great way to compete beyond borders and a lot of fun. At TCS, we continue to believe in this philosophy that programming can be both fun and challenging.

For past 7 seasons, TCS has had great fun in promoting the Programming-As-A-Sport culture. Hope you too had great fun participating in previous seasons of CodeVita. Last season CodeVita created new milestones with over 210k students across 68 countries registering for the contest. Over 1800 CodeVitans were offered in India.
