About Belagavi

Belagavi (earlier known as "Venugrama" or the "Bamboo Village") is one of the oldest, strong, prominent and well cultured historical place nestling high in the Western Ghats. The Government of Karnataka has proposed making Belagavi the second capital of Karnataka, hence a second state administrative building Suvarna Vidhana Soudha was inaugurated on 11 October 2012. The old town area with cotton and silk weavers stands gloriously besides the modern, bustling, tree-lined British Cantonment. Step out of the forts and you have a wide choice of temples and churches to visit. Belagavi has an enviable heritage and offers much to be discovered. It is also known as Malenadu or Rain Country and the vegetation here is verdant green throughout the year. Belagavi has now become one of the important and considered district in the state of Karnataka. Belagavi is exactly at the center between Mumbai and Bangalore. So, Stay a while and discover Belagavi..... Belagavi is also called as "Kunda Nagari" enjoy the taste of Kunda Sweet and carry home the sweet memory of VTU and Belagavi.

About Visvesvaraya Technological University

Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU), Belagavi, Karnataka was established on 1st April 1998, as per the VTU Act 1994 of the Government of Karnataka. This University bears the distinguished name of Bharat Ratna Sir M. Visvesvaraya, who was an astounding engineer and a great visionary. VTU has jurisdiction over the whole state of Karnataka, has four Regional Offices established at Bengaluru, Mysuru, Kalburgi and Belagavi.

VTU is one of the prestigious and largest Technological Universities in India with 220 Engineering Colleges affiliated to it. VTU is imparting technical education to more than 4 lakh students under its 35 undergraduate and 94 Postgraduate Programs.

VTU has its Head Office located in Belagavi recently named as Belagavi reckoning the fact that University is a seat of confluence of knowledge and as a technological University, VTU does not restrict itself only to curricular activities but emphasizes on the overall growth of knowledge in society and hence its campus in Belagavi is named aptly as "Jnana Sangama".
