CIRCULAR

Sub: Violation of VTU Regulations governing various courses – reg...

It has been noticed that, the affiliated colleges of the University, are not strictly following and adhering to the Regulations governing various courses (UG and PG) offered by the University. Many affiliated colleges without observing the Regulations framed by the University, have allowed and permitted students to take admission as well as examinations to respective Engineering courses beyond maximum duration prescribed in the Regulations. This conduct and decision amounts to an will full omission on the part of the colleges in not following University Regulations. The Mechanical action of the various affiliated colleges have resulted in filing cases against the University.

Further, the affiliated colleges are also found violating the university Regulations prescribing eligibility criteria for UG/PG courses. Hence, it is directed to all the affiliated colleges to strictly adhere and follow the eligibility criteria prescribed in the University Regulations before admitting the respective students for the courses. In the event of any doubt, the institution shall consult the University for clarification with respect to the admission as well as eligibility criteria as per the Regulations.

Hence, it is hereby directed to all the affiliated colleges that, due diligence be shown while taking admission to UG & PG courses offered by the University by adhering to its Regulations governing the admission to various courses. Further, the willful omission to follow and adhere to the University Regulations will invite strict action against such institution. The respective institution which violates this direction will also be responsible to reimburse the expenses incurred by the University in conducting / prosecuting such cases filed against the University.
