CIRCULAR

Sub: Embedded and VLSI skill development programs to UG / PG students

With reference to the above, this is to bring it to your notice that VTU has entered into MOU with RV-VLSI Design Center to offer Embedded and VLSI skill development programs to UG / PG students leading to VTU certification.

Students interested in acquiring design skills and industry exposure can enroll themselves for these courses at RV-VLSI, Bangalore.

The same may be considered to meet the Internship requirements of the courses.

This initiative will enhance their chances of getting placement in core companies in Embedded & VLSI domains. Hence, the students can take the benefit of this programme.

For more details about the program please contact:

Mr. Narendra Kamath, RV-VLSI Design Center
