CIRCULAR

Subject: Research Methodology for Planning and Architectural Studies...

Reference:

1. The chairperson's recommendation vide email dated: 08.01.2025
2. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's approval dated: 21.01.2025

In alignment with the recommendations and approval received from Board of Studies in Architecture, it is hereby notified that the course "Research Methodology and IPR" currently listed in the 2024 scheme for postgraduate programs will be replaced with "Research Methodology for Planning and Architectural Studies" for students enrolled in planning and architecture programs.

Key Points:

1. Revised Course Title: The new title of the course is "Research Methodology for Planning and Architectural Studies."
2. Course Availability: The course content is hosted on the NPTEL portal. Students can access the material through the Centre for Online Education portal(<https://online.vtu.ac.in/course-details/research-methodology-for-planning-and-architectural-studies-iit-roorkee>).
3. Examinations: Students are required to complete the course and appear for the Continuous Internal Assessment (CIE) and Semester End Examination (SEE) within the timeframe specified by the COE Mysuru
4. Implementation: This replacement takes effect immediately and applies to both the current and upcoming academic sessions under the 2024 scheme. While this course carries no credit, qualifying is mandatory for the award of the degree. As per the scheme, it will not be considered for vertical progression.

Departments offering planning and architecture programs are requested to update their records and communicate this change to faculty and students at the earliest convenience.

For any further clarifications or assistance, please contact the Office of the Special Officer, VTU.
