Dear All,

At the outset, I would like to express my thanks from the bottom of my heart to the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), led by the very able and agile Chairman Professor P. B. Sharma and a very dynamic and outstanding Secretary General Professor Furqan Qamar, for organizing this visit to Taiwan.

be honest I had not expected that this visit will have such a profound impact. Not only it left a great flavor of the academic strengths at Taiwan Universities it also identified the commonalities between our Universities. The added bonus was in terms of introducing to some of the finest people I have met in my life. Not only the host went out of the way to make our stay, interaction and travel very comfortable, (one of the best of my international visits in such delegations I had so far), the genuine feeling of warmth, comfort, care, affection and being liked showered by my Indian colleagues has left a deep impression. While we will certainly take MoUs to a logical conclusions, as per the ToR, I will also like to explore the possibility of partnering with many of our Indian Vice-Chancellors given the large canvas of expertise that we collectively represent.

Thank you indeed Prof. Qamar and Prof. Sharma for bringing together such excellent academic leaders from India. Believe me when I first saw the detailed program I was simply wondering who organized this apparently packed program, shifting hotels almost every night, going across the country, having meals at different places and with no time for sight seeing cum shopping. However, now that we are back and can retrospect, I must compliment the organizers for having designed our itinerary just to ensure that we don't get worked up covering long distances on road before starting the meetings. The care for details, providing escorts to ensure that we do not get lost in Taiwan's culture, language, handing over packed breakfast on the morning of final checkout from NOVOTEL Hotel and many others have left a lasting impact. We will have to be extra extra careful to ensure that we at least reciprocate their gesture whenever they come and visit us. I would be more than happy to be of any help in this regard.

Thank you all once again and we do hope that we will not only stay connected but also to work together for a common cause.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Syed Hasnain
