Sir/ Madam

Subject: Commencement of Classes and academic activities regarding...

Reference: Dean Faculty of engineering opinion dated: 06.02.2024

Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's approval dated: 09.02.2024

AICTE Guidelines for working professional

This is in regard to the aforementioned subject: academic activities for working professionals admitted to the third semester of various undergraduate engineering programs begin on February 12, 2024. The AICTE guidelines for working professionals are attached to this circular for reference. It is now directed to provide a flexible time table to accommodate classes for these working professionals at the college level. The commencement of classes started late for working professionals owing to the admissions procedure. You are thus notified to schedule a few extra lessons on the first and third Saturdays, as well as, if necessary, on Sundays, in order to fulfill all academic tasks as outlined in the scheme of study and examinations. The scheme and syllabus to study for working professional are identical to those now in use for regular and lateral entry students (ref. AICTE guidelines). Academic Calendar for working professional will be published soon.

Thank you, sir,

Sd/-
