CIRCULAR

Sir,

Subject: Post Graduate Certificate Program in IT & Networking Engineering regarding...

Reference: Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's approval Dated:

The KARNATAKA-GERMAN MULTI SKILL DEVELOPMENT CENTRE (KGMSDC), an autonomous registered society established by the Government of Karnataka with technical support from German International Services (GIZ InS), has founded KARNATAKA GERMAN TECHNICAL TRAINING INSTITUTES (KGTTIs) in Bengaluru, Kalaburagi, Belagavi, Mangaluru, Hubballi, Mysuru, and extension centres in Gouribidanur and Karkala. The primary mission of KGTTI is to deliver broad-based, multidisciplinary, world-class training programs in various technical fields, aimed at developing specialized skills that align with industry requirements globally. The KGTTIs aim to provide comprehensive vocational training across various industrial technical fields.

KGMSDC, in collaboration with KGTTI-Kalaburagi and VISVESVARAYA TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY (VTU), is offering a 'Post Graduate Certificate Program in IT & Networking Engineering'.

IT and networking engineering are crucial in today's digital world, as they form the backbone of modern communication, business operations, and technological advancements. IT and networking engineering play a vital role in the development, maintenance, and security of the digital infrastructure that supports modern society. They are essential for the functioning of businesses, education, healthcare, and communication, making them indispensable in the contemporary world.
