1. 2022 scheme and syllabus of Mechanical Engineering, VTU Belagavi
2. Chairperson BoS in Mechanical Engineering Suggestion, vide email dated: 17.02.2026
3. Dean faculty of Engineering VTU Belagavi approval vide email dated: 18.02.2026
4. The hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's approval dated: 18.02.2026

It is hereby informed to all concerned that, in the 2022 Scheme and Syllabus of Mechanical Engineering, the course BME657C – Simulation and Analysis using Ansys Workbench has been removed from the Scheme and Syllabus with immediate effect.

This decision has been taken as the practical exercise components of BME657C substantially overlap with the laboratory component of BME701 (IPCC). In order to avoid duplication of course content and to maintain academic coherence, the course stands withdrawn.

All 6th semester Mechanical Engineering students are hereby informed that they shall not opt for the course BME657C. However, students may opt for any one course from the remaining three courses available under the said category for study and pass. The Scheme and Syllabus hosted on the VTU web portal have been updated accordingly. All stakeholders are requested to refresh the web portal and verify the updated details.

All Principals of affiliated and Constituent engineering colleges and Chairpersons/ Programme coordinators at university departments are hereby instructed to bring the contents of this circular to the notice of the students and faculty concerned and ensure strict compliance.

Thanking you
